GEN. IKE RELEASED AS NATO COMMANDER

It's Anniversary Time Around White House

WASHINGTON, April 11 — (AP)—One year ago Friday—actually, the announcement came in the middle of the night—Harry Truman fired Gen. Douglas MacArthur from all his Far Eastern commands.

And seven years ago Saturday, the man from Missouri—dazed and frightened—suddenly found himself in a position to fire five-star generals. It was on April 12, 1945, that Franklin D. Roosevelt died and Truman became President.

There wasn't any anniversary

THERE'S LITTLE DOUBT that these two bluebloods—Dinro Colin and Miss Dividend—will be the hit of the coming Easter Parade in New York City. They're all togged out in the newest thing in fashionable chapeaux designed by Eleanor Flounoy, a Floridian turned New Yorker.

Christians Throughout World Commemorate Christ's Death

By The Associated Press
Christians throughout the world Friday commemorated the most solemn event of Holy Week—Christ's death on the cross.

Christian pilgrims in the great numbers since the Holy Land war jammed Jerusalem.

Jews and Arabs relaxed somewhat their barred wire barriers separating the old and new cities to allow the pilgrims to visit the shrines marking Christ's last days.

The pilgrims retraced His tortuous journey along the cobbled Via Dolorosa to Calvary. On Sunday the Roman Catholics will celebrate Easter at the Basilica of the Holy Sepulchre, a service marked

3 Feed Firms Named in Suits

WASHINGTON, April 11 — (AP)—Three Cincinnati manufacturers of animal feeds are accused by the Federal Trade Commission with discriminating in price among their retail dealers.

The corporations cited Thursday, and the brands of feed they sell, are Kentucky Chemical Industries, Inc. (Provico), Ubiko Milling Co. (Life Guard), Early & Daniel Co. (Tuxedo). Each manufacturer, the complaints say, has adopted schedules so that any refund granted to dealers is proportionately higher according to the total tonnage of animal feed purchased during a specified 12 month period.

Leave Is Granted

NEW YORK, April 11 — (AP)—Formal approval of Paul G. Hoffman's leave as president of the Ford Foundation to direct the presidential nomination campaign for Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower was announced Thursday. The leave is from March 4 to July 12.

Meanderings

By Wash Fayette

I have mentioned before the great amount of traffic passing over Court Street every day and night.

The count at the bridge on West Court last year was 13,000 cars daily. I hope to obtain data soon through the state highway superintendent, David Hillery, in Fayette County, regarding late figures.

Wednesday at 5:15, I stood in Court Street opposite the Court House, and counted 28 motor vehicles in sight from Columbus and Washington avenues to Clinton, Leesburg and Highland avenues.

That number moving on the street at one time is not out of the ordinary, but a common occurrence. In fact I have seen many more than 28 on the section of street above mentioned at one time.

Of the 28 seen Wednesday afternoon, six were trucks, and three of them were the huge commercial type.

Don't tell me Court Street is not a busy place!

celebration at the White House last year.

The executive mansion—like the rest of Washington, much of the country and many of the world's capitals—was in a turmoil over the MacArthur ouster, which produced one of the great controversies of the twentieth century.

Twelve months later the echoes are still rumbling and are likely to rumble louder in the election campaign ahead.

And each side contends as vociferously as ever that it was right. Truman supporters say civilian control over the armed forces was preserved by the President's action. And that, because MacArthur's hit-harder program was not followed, the Korean war was prevented from spreading, with the result that a truce may now be in sight.

MacArthur backers say a bloody stalemate has been brought about by failure to follow the general's proposals: to strike at Red air bases in Manchuria, to use the Chinese Nationalist troops on Formosa, to blockade the coast of Red China. Had the general's policies been carried out, his supporters say, the war might have ended by now in victory for the U. S.

The fact appears to be that Truman, whatever his opponents may and do say to the contrary, is convinced he has done a good job as President and is determined that nothing must happen in the final months of his administration to spoil his record.

He claims for his administration the credit for preventing World War III. And he feels such sensations of the day as the corruption-in-government scandals will be forgotten by history—even if they are remembered by the voters in November.

To his own surprise, Truman has enjoyed being President a large part of the time in spite of the awesome decisions he has had to make, the brickbats that have been hurled at him, the lack of privacy that has tormented him and his family.

He hasn't let the job wear him down, either. Though he'll be 68 on May 8, the President appears in robust health.

WHS Commencement Speaker Is Selected; School Census Planned

Announcement of the commencement speaker, a discussion of proposed changes in the high school chemistry laboratory and plans for the annual school enumeration were the principal items of business taken up at the school board meeting Thursday afternoon.

Dr. Harold L. Yochum

Supt. Stephen Brown announced that Dr. Harold L. Yochum, president of Capital University, will be the principal speaker at the annual high school commencement on May 29.

Dr. Yochum holds bachelor of arts and doctor of divinity degrees from Capital University, masters degree from Ohio State University, and has a long record of accomplishments in the educational and religious fields.

THE SCHOOL BOARD spent considerable time discussing proposed changes in the high school chemistry laboratory with Abe Davis, representing the W. M. Welch Co., and Frank Dudley, the chemistry teacher at the high school.

Further discussion of the subject is slated for the future, with efforts being made to utilize the room for classroom activities as well as for laboratory studies.

Supt. Brown reported that the annual school enumeration of youngsters from five to 18 years of age, inclusive, will again be undertaken. The board of education has paid teachers 10 cents a name for their work in the enumeration in the past.

Board members approved the

Big Missouri River Flood Sweeping Onward Downstream

PIERRE, S. D., April 11 — (AP)—The Missouri River flood swept toward downstream communities Friday after dropping here slightly overnight from its record crest of just over 25 feet.

Army engineers gauges showed a 24.75 foot reading at midnight. But with upriver tributaries still pouring in huge quantities of water, they refused to say the crest has passed. Flood stage here is 15 feet.

The Big Muddy, normally 1,000 feet wide, spread over five miles to engulf all but three blocks of nearby Fort Pierre and 30 blocks of this South Dakota capital.

Charles Fales, an alert 85-year-old Fort Pierre resident, was asked if anyone had ever seen more water in the Missouri.

"Only Noah," he replied.

Fales was a witness to the 1881 flood, called the worst until now.

The Red Cross declared 12 Nebraska and Iowa counties disaster areas as the unrelenting torrent swirled southward. In South Dakota, 13 counties fought the raging river and its tributaries. Floods also were reported in North Dakota, Minnesota and Montana.

Damages from the overflows mounted into the millions of dollars.

At South Sioux City, Neb., the flood pushed through a dike Thursday to drive out 250 families. The Red Cross also reported:

Sioux City, Ia., readied plans to care for 1,000 families expected to be driven out when the crest hits there about Monday.

The downstream cities of Omaha, Neb., and Council Bluffs, Ia., girded against a predicted crest of 28.5 feet, some six feet above that which brought havoc in the last great flood of 1943.

If the forecast holds true, Missouri water will climb two feet higher there than the protecting dikes erected after that most recent disaster.

5 Boys Killed

CLOPPENBURG, Germany, April 11 — (AP)—A youngster, playing in a meadow near here Thursday, threw a stone at a leftover wartime artillery shell. He hit it. It exploded and killed five boys, 10 to 14 years old.

Senators Growl As President Seeks To Kill Political Plums

WASHINGTON, April 11 — (AP)—A roaring Senate argument has been fired up by President Truman's plans to shift more than 21,000 federal jobs from political patronage status to Civil Service.

Unless either the House or Senate kills the measure within 60 days, it becomes law under terms of the government reorganization act of 1949.

The battle is expected to be decided in the Senate where since 1789 most senators have had the privilege of confirming federal officials "appointed by the President by and with the consent of the Senate."

The same bitter attacks were leveled against Truman when he sub-

Steel Wage Talks Remain Stalemate

WASHINGTON, April 11 — (AP)—The nation was still confronted Friday with a stalemate labor dispute in its steel industry.

Negotiators were at work trying to iron out difficulties, but one industry spokesman pessimistically declared that the talks were on "dead center."

At the moment, the steel industry is under government operation, there is no strike, steel companies are managing their own plants and finances under nominal federal rule, and the vital defense metal is flowing.

How long this "status quo" will remain is anyone's guess.

The steel industry already has lost two attempts for fast court review of the legality of President Truman's seizure orders and attorneys are rushing new moves. But for the moment it seemed the government was firmly in control.

It was plain, however, that the Truman administration recognized it had a bear by the tail and wanted to let loose as soon as possible. This could only be accomplished by a settlement of the basic differences between the industry and Philip Murray, head of the steelworkers union.

Otherwise, without government intervention, Murray's threatened industry-wide strike was sure to materialize.

Wage talks between the industry and Murray under supervision of Acting Defense Mobilizer John R. Steelman appeared to be getting nowhere. A prominent union official said privately: "We're still on dead center." This was taken to mean there had been no progress since industry-union talks collapsed before Tuesday night's seizure.

'Murder Well' Yields 4 Bodies

MANILA, April 11 — (AP)—Police checking on a murder confession dug four human skeletons at the bottom of an old Spanish well here Friday. They said they expected to find more.

The "murder well," some 50 feet deep, is in suburban Quezon City. Police began excavations 18 days ago after two persons confessed murdering a man a year ago and dumping his body into the shaft.

Pastry Prices Due To Go Up

WASHINGTON, April 11 — (AP)—Bread, cake and pie prices are going up during the next 30 days.

The Office of Price Stabilization Thursday announced new ceiling prices which will boost the price of a loaf of bread about one cent, more expensive cakes as much as five cents. The new regulation covers bread, rolls, fresh-baked cookies, pastries, sweet-yeast-raised goods, doughnuts, crullers, pies and frozen bakery items.

Fourth Request Given to Soviet

GENEVA, April 11 — (AP)—A UN commission Friday gave Russia until April 27 to let the commission into Germany's Soviet zone to study the possibility of free elections throughout Germany.

The commission set the deadline in a fourth letter requesting admission from Gen. V. I. Chukov, Soviet zone commander. He failed to answer the other three. Unless he lets the group in by the deadline, they said they would wind up their work and report failure to the UN.

June 1 Date Is Requested

No Reference Made To Political Future

WASHINGTON, April 11 — (AP)—The White House announced Friday afternoon the release of Gen. Dwight Eisenhower as supreme commander of Allied powers in Europe effective June 1.

It made public an exchange of letters which disclosed Eisenhower wrote Secretary of Defense Lovett on April 2 that "I consider that the specific purposes for which I was recalled to duty have been largely accomplished."

That same day, Eisenhower notified the chairman of the standing group of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization to the same effect.

Lovett, in a letter dated April 10, wrote Eisenhower he was taking appropriate action "to secure your release from assignment as supreme commander, Allied powers, Europe, effective June 1, and to have you placed on inactive status upon your return to the U. S."

In his letter, Eisenhower made no reference to the fact that he has agreed to accept the Republican nomination for President if it should be tendered him.

The letter simply said:

"I REQUEST that you initiate appropriate action to secure my release from assignment as supreme commander, Allied Powers Europe by approximately June 1, and that I be placed on inactive status upon my return to the United States. A relief date fixed this far in advance should provide ample time for the appointment of a successor and for any preparation and counsel that he may desire from me."

Presidential Secretary Joseph Short said Eisenhower wrote President Truman a personal letter, informing him he was taking this step through channels—that is through Lovett—and that the President replied with a letter to Eisenhower, written in long hand.

"Both letters were personal and very cordial and will not be made public," Short said.

Short had no news as to Eisenhower's successor.

Eisenhower formally assumed the command in Europe on April 2, 1951—so his letter was dated exactly a year from the time he took on the task of building a defense wall against possible Communist aggression.

Eisenhower, World War II leader and a five-star general, was on inactive duty and president of Columbia University when Truman asked him to take the European assignment.

WHILE JUNE 1 is the effective date of his release, some of his supporters anticipate he may be able to return to the United States somewhat earlier—provided his successor is ready to take over sooner. The Republican convention in Chicago opens July 7.

Eisenhower asked for return to "inactive" status. This will restore him to the position he had before he took on the command and will maintain his military connections.

In that status, Eisenhower will be subject to some military regulations.

This could place limitations on campaign discussion of past matters of high policy which still remained classified as secret, even though the reasons for actual military secrecy no longer exist.

If Eisenhower had resigned his commission, there would have been no link, no regulations remaining to create road-blocks in whatever political course he might choose.

As a practical matter, however, the battling over the Republican nomination is certain to move into a new phase with Eisenhower's return. In Europe, he has been remote from the hurly-burly of the struggle.

This has had both advantages and disadvantages. On the one hand, he has not been under pressure to express himself on the developments of the day—such as the steel situation—as have others in the race.

ON THE OTHER hand, he has not been in close contact with the American people and with the party leaders in states and local communities.

By June 1 only 148 of the Republican national convention's 1,208 delegates will remain to be selected—70 in California and 14 in South Dakota primaries, and 26 in Missouri, 32 in Indiana and six in District of Columbia conventions.

Eisenhower will tangle with Taft in the South Dakota primary only. What happens in the weeks between Eisenhower's return and the convention voting could make or break his chances of receiving the

GOP Rhubarb Due For Airing Over And Over

Cleveland's Snub
Of Herbert, OK for
Taft Being Debated

By REED SMITH
COLUMBUS, April 11.—(P)—You haven't heard the last of the Republican rhubarb over the Cuyahoga County endorsement of Cincinnati's Charles P. Taft for governor.

The drum-fire it produced from his two rivals for the GOP nomination, is only starting. It will get hotter as the May 6 primary election draws nearer.

Former Gov. Thomas J. Herbert of Cleveland was especially miffed over loss of his home county's endorsement in his comeback try. State Sen. Roscoe R. Walcutt of Columbus, who won endorsement in Taft's own Hamilton County, bristled with displeasure.

They charged Congressman George H. Bender and Paul Walter steam-rollered Taft's endorsement through the Cuyahoga County Republican executive committee. Bender is county chairman. Walter heads the Northern Ohio campaign of Taft's brother, Sen. Robert A. Taft, for President.

HERBERT called the endorsement an "iron curtain" action and the "very kind of gang bossism which Charles Taft himself has so often decry."

Taft is allied with Cincinnati's "Charterite" faction composed of Democrats and independent Republicans who bucked their party organization there. The alliance cost Taft the Hamilton County GOP endorsement.

Herbert said Bender failed to deny his charges about Charles Taft's endorsement in Cleveland and warned:

"No candidate can wisely afford—in more ways than one—to bargain with a Bender for his favor."

Herbert did not elaborate on the remark but rumors did. They went something like this:

If Charles Taft's brother, Robert, is elected President, he would resign from the Senate to enter the White House. If Charles is elected governor, he would appoint Bender to the Senate vacancy until a successor is elected for the unexpired term.

Robert won reelection to the Senate in 1950 and started a new six-year term last year. It expires in 1957. If he resigned, an appointee to the vacancy would serve until Dec. 15, 1954. Whoever won election the preceding November to the unexpired term would take over on Dec. 15 and serve until the term ended.

BENDER possibly figures that an appointment to such a senatorial vacancy would put him in an advantageous spot for election to the unexpired term. He is serving his sixth and last two-year term as Ohio congressman-at-large.

The statewide congressional seat was abolished when the last legislature redistricted the state. Bender is seeking the Republican nomination to Congress from the newly-created 23rd District in Cuyahoga County. He has one opponent.

Walcutt is the sole Republican gubernatorial aspirant to get the endorsement of the party organization in his home county—Franklin. He took the occasion of Taft's tactical victory in Cuyahoga County to say:

"I charge that New Dealer C. P. Taft has broken faith with his brother, Robert Taft, and has deceitfully used the Robert Taft organization to further the C. P. Taft campaign."

"Robert Taft is a Republican. C. P. Taft is an avowed New Dealer. Like oil and water, they will not mix."

Charles Taft's campaign literature describes him as "a man of judgment and sound Republican doctrine." It says analysis of his views on the New and Fair Deals will show a "very close parallel" to national Republican leaders.

Miami Alumni To Meet Apr. 17

Covered Dish Supper
Is Being Arranged

A covered dish supper has been planned for the meeting of the Miami University Alumni Club of Fayette County, April 17 in the Dayton Power and Light Co. recreation room, Thomas H. Mark, the president announced Friday.

The club, a loosely knit organization, includes in its membership all former students in the historic old school at Oxford and the parents of students there now.

Mark's announcement of the time and place of the club meeting came the day after he had received a letter from John E. Dolibois, the executive secretary of the Miami University Alumni Association, saying that he had arranged for Dr. E. W. Smith, to address the meeting.

Dr. Smith is the dean of the university's graduate school and professor of history.

Dolibois, a personal friend of Mark, discarded formalities in his letter to him as he wrote that "Dr. Smith gives a terrific talk on a combination of Miami University and foreign affairs."

Mark said "I know exactly what he (Dolibois) means, because I had him (Dr. Smith) as my professor in history when I was in school there just before the war."

DOLIBOIS SAID he also would send along a color and sound film for the meeting and asked Mark to arrange to get a 11 mm. projector with a sound track and a screen for showing it.

He did not say what the subjects covered in the motion picture are, however. Mark said he assumed there would be some scenes from the Miami campus and class room because Dolibois' letter mentioned that he would send "additional material on Miami, including the latest rotogravures."

Mark said the alumni club here would like to have students in both city and county high school who plan to go to college come to the meeting, too. "That is one of the purposes of the club and the meeting," he added.

Officers of the club, with Mark as the president, are Mrs. Robert Woodmansee, the secretary-treasurer, and V. F. Crawford, Mrs. John Case and Ron Guinn, the Mt. Sterling High School coach, the members of the executive board.

One of the biggest tasks and worries for the officers is getting word to all the alumni and parents. Mark said the club's list of alumni was far from complete and that the officers and members of the club know it. But, because some always are moving in and out of the county, it is difficult to complete it or keep it up to date.

"Our only hope," he said, "is that the former students at Miami will get in touch with us...any one of the officers or board members."

He also expressed the hope that high school students contemplating going to Miami or any other college would "let us know about it." He explained that "we former students of Miami just want an opportunity to tell them about the school and show them some of the pictures."

The officers are planning to notify everyone on the club's list by telephone. It was explained that it was felt the personal contact would be more effective than a letter.

GOP nomination. Meanwhile, the tug-of-war between Eisenhower's backers and Sen. Robert A. Taft for GOP convention delegates centered Friday in Kentucky.

The Ohio senator captured all six delegate votes in three Kentucky district conventions Thursday. Since backers of the two candidates have agreed to split another district, Taft leads 7-1 as the state's other four districts hold conventions to select delegates.

Eisenhower captured 20 of the delegates in Kansas, his home state, at a GOP convention in Topeka Thursday. Taft got the other two.

The next big ballot-gathering contest between Eisenhower and Taft is shaping up in New Jersey's preference primary next Tuesday, with 38 delegate votes at stake.

A SIMILAR poll in Illinois last week was only 3.12 per cent off the actual results.

Kefauver headed eastward Friday after a western campaign tour that ended in Portland, Ore. His supporters explained sparse turnouts in Portland by saying the Tennesseean was making only a one-day stopover there to set up arrangements for a longer campaign visit before Oregon's May 16 primary. Kefauver visited Boise, Idaho, Friday.

Other political highlights: 1. Gov. Adlai A. Stevenson's press secretary said the Illinois executive will clarify his political plans next week.

Mentioned strongly as Truman's choice for the Democratic nomination, Stevenson has said repeated-

Will We Face Food Shortage In 20 Years?

Is there cause for alarm in reports which have been circulated by representatives of the U. S. Department of Agriculture to the effect that it will not be many years before we will face a food shortage in this country by reason of over-population?

There are a few men in Fayette County who hold to this opinion seriously and they give apparently valid reasoning to support their views.

We talked with one prominent Fayette County agriculturist a few days ago, a man who has spent much time in study of farm conditions. He was emphatic in his views as to the certainty of this idea.

Too many people are taking everything away from the farm land and are putting far less than enough back into it, he said.

Some specialists in the federal agricultural department are reported to hold the opinion that within 20 years the United States will be over-populated, meaning that farms of the nation will not be able to feed all the people.

The 1950 census put the population at 150,697,000, an increase of 19,000,000 above the 1940 figure of 131,699,000. With a larger population base today than ever before, it is reasonable to suppose that it may increase roughly 40,000,000 within 20 to 25 years.

There are others, however, who take a different view of the situation. They argue that in the years to come mechanization and increased fertility should meet this problem. Dr. Firman E. Bear, head of the soils department at the New Jersey College of Agriculture, maintains that if the need should arise, this country by applying its "know how" can produce enough food for 1,000,000,000 people.

One thing is certain: We doubt that this country will wake up some day to find it has not food enough, even though Congress may make a minute reduction in the budget request for the agricultural department's agencies. A threat of this sort would be foreseen, and American brains will devise inventions, increase fertilization and discover more productive crops.

Quantity or Quality?

Quantity or quality—which is most important in weapons of war? Since the beginning of the Korean War, U. S. weapons experts have been examining the Communists' weapons at the proving grounds in Aberdeen, Maryland.

Although the exact findings of the tests on these weapons are secrets, one result has been revealed. The firearms (almost 100 percent of which are now Russian made) are totally inferior to those with which U. S. troops are equipped, taken as individual components.

However, because of the lack of refinement given to the Russian weapons and the crude construction of them, much time and much money are saved on each piece.

Therefore, although the guns and tanks are themselves inferior, two, three, or even four times as many can be built for the comparable price of ours.

This problem thus presents the question: is it better to be "fustest wit the mostest" or "fustest with the bestest?"

Current party emblems are the elephant and the donkey, when the country needs horse sense more than anything else.

Scientists say human beings 10,000 years ago were no smarter than they are now.

Diet and Health

By HERMAN N. BUNDENSEN

The nose on your neighbor's face could be plastic, and you might never know it. Lifelike plastic noses, ears, fingers, hands and other parts of the body have become real aids to the physical and mental health.

Rightly or wrongly, we judge people largely by their looks. Our friendliness, speech and actions toward others are also influenced to a great extent by this one fact.

Affects Personality

It has been shown that a person's looks can also affect his personality. This was brought out in a recent study of disfigured prisoners. Those who had their defects corrected by surgery were able to take a constructive place in society more readily than those who retained disfigurements.

Missing parts of the body, whether due to accidents of birth or crippling disease, can present an especially serious problem.

For example, cancer of the nose is fairly common, and sometimes makes it necessary to remove the whole nose. Children's noses have also been bitten off by animals.

In many cases like these, it is impossible for a plastic surgeon to correct the deformity or replace the missing part. He may have to postpone surgery until the child's bones have stopped growing.

Plastic noses and other parts are now being made to help these people. The results are so lifelike that they are difficult to distinguish from real skin.

Similar to Flesh

These parts are made of acrylic plastic, which has a texture and resistance similar to normal flesh. A mold of the feature to be replaced is first made from clay or wax. The raw plastic is molded to the form. Expert coloring blends the tones with the individual's own skin.

Plastic limbs are also being made to camouflage deformities. A patient can use these parts while awaiting plastic surgery at some later date.

The new plastics thus offer a real boon for people with serious deformities.

Memoirs of Hotel Bellhops

CINCINNATI—(P)—When you register at a hotel, the desk clerk bangs a bell importantly and calls out:

"Boy! Show this gentleman to his room."

The next few seconds are always full of tremendous suspense. Getting the hotel room is one of the great dramas of everyday American life. Each person must play his role exactly right or the whole thing is ruined.

The desk clerk has acted his part perfectly. He looked at you with icy suspicion when you first stepped meekly up to him, like a prisoner at the bar of justice.

Then a slow smile spread over his stern countenance like a frozen river breaking up in spring. Ye, sir! Prefer a tub or shower? As you sign your name a small sensation of self-respect creeps back into you.

"Boy! Show this gentleman to his room!"

You will step forward? Whoever he is, he will make or break the whole performance.

There are some bellhops who pick up your bags, stare at them disdainfully and make you feel like a dime store thief as you trail them through the lobby to the elevator.

Others can do it with pomp and ceremony, as if they were Cleopatra's servants unrolling the welcome rug for the great Caesar. Other guests look up impressed, and you secretly hope they think you are a mighty elephant hunter just in from Africa.

Some day a perfect hotel will be built. One of the first things they will do is hire midgits to strew rose petals in your path. I have always thought that would make an impressive entrance.

There are all sorts of bellhops. Veteran travelers will recall at least some of these types:

1. The elderly retainer bellhop—He is white-haired and time-bent and has been with the hotel ever since it put in its first Gideon Bible. He usually picks up your briefcase in dignified silence, and you carry the heavy bags yourself, grateful to be of any assistance you can.

2. The palsy-walsy bellhop—He starts whispering in your ear in the elevator, gives you the lowdown on the town, and waits until you open your bag in the room to see if it contains an open bottle he can share.

3. The Chamber-of-Commerce bellhop—"We've a great little city here, sir," he says, and begins unreeeling statistics on bank clearings, employment figures and the prospect of new industries. This boy lets you know he expects to own the hotel himself soon.

4. The busy bee bellhop—He flutters about the room opening windows that ought to be closed and closing windows that ought to be left open. When he finally says, "will that be all, sir?" you feel as if the very least you can do is offer to send him through college.

5. The hamlet bellhop—He never utters a word, just puts down your bag and looks at you like a melancholy hound dog. On his face is an expression that asks silently, "how could life do this to me?" You have a wild sense of fear that tears will begin to roll down his cheeks.

6. The dodo bellhop—This is the old-fashioned bellhop who takes you briskly and cheerfully to your room, puts down your bag, hands you your key, and says "thank you" if you give him an old-fashioned two-bit tip.

Most bellhop collectors I know insist this type is now extinct in America, and has been for years. They say that if you offer a bellhop only a quarter today he will look at it and ask in honest surprise, "What is it?"

Brannan Bows To Solons On Price Booster

WASHINGTON, April 11.—(P)—Secretary Brannan bowed to a congressional recommendation Thursday and ordered government buying of pork and eggs in an effort to bolster their prices.

He announced that the Agricultural Department will offer to buy a "substantial" amount of smoked pork and up to 500,000 cases of eggs for use next fall by the government-sponsored non-profit school lunch program.

Brannan said the purchases would divert supplies from markets temporarily burdened with surpluses.

A House Appropriations Committee recently urged such action to strengthen farm prices of these products. It was particularly concerned over a department forecast that hog production this year may drop nine per cent because of low prices.

Brannan had told the committee earlier that he had no "practical" way of supporting hog and egg prices. He added that "buying a few hams for the school lunch program is not going to have much effect" on producer prices. He has insisted that a better method of supporting prices would be to make payments to farmers when prices fell below predetermined support levels.

This is the extent of Governor Stevenson's knowledge of Alger Hiss. However, he was asked other questions which had nothing to do with other persons' opinions of Alger Hiss. He was asked and he answered as follows:

"Q. No. 3 Did you, prior to 1948, hear that the defendant Alger Hiss during the years 1937 and 1938 removed confidential and secret documents from the State Department and made such documents available to persons not authorized to see or receive them?"

"A. No. 3 No.

"Q. No. 4 Did you, prior to 1948, hear reports that the defendant Alger Hiss was a Communist?"

"A. No. 4 No.

"Q. No. 5 Did you, prior to 1948, hear reports that the defendant Alger Hiss was a Communist sympathizer?"

"A. No. 5 No."

I am sure that all this is very different from what I heard on the television show, "Meet the Press." However, the time gave out as the governor was discussing this question and maybe he would have explained it differently, or maybe, like Owen Lattimore, he forgot. It seems to me that this deposition requires publication because of Governor Stevenson's prominence as a candidate.

Hiss Stigma Aimed at Stevenson

When I listened to Governor Adlai E. Stevenson of Illinois on "Meet the Press," I seemed to have had the impression that the governor was only asked by the court what others thought of Alger Hiss and that he replied to that.

So I went to the record. Governor Stevenson was interrogated by William B. Chittenden, United States Commissioner for the Southern District of Illinois, on June 2, 1949. This colloquy occurred:

"Q. No. 4 How long have you known Mr. Alger Hiss, the defendant?"

"A. No. 4 Since June or July, 1933.

"Q. No. 5 Where, when and under what circumstances did you first become acquainted with him?"

"A. No. 5 We served together in the legal division of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, in Washington in 1933."

Then Governor Stevenson said: "A. No. 6 In the Agricultural Adjustment Administration in 1933 we were working on different commodities. Our contact was frequent but not close nor daily. I had no further contact with him until I met him again in the State Department when I went to work there in 1945. Upon my arrival in the State Department at the end of February or early March to the end of April, when Mr. Hiss left for the San Francisco conference, he was, I think, largely preoccupied with the arrangements for that conference, for the United Nations Conference on International Organization at San Francisco.

During that interval, from the first of March to the end of April, I was engaged in other matters and met him mostly in intradepartmental meetings and in connection with some aspects of the plan for the San Francisco conference, largely relating to matters pertaining to the handling of the press at the conference. I was at the conference, myself, as assistant to the Secretary of State from about the 10th of May until the end of June. During that interval Mr. Hiss was Secretary General of the conference and I was attached to the United States delegation. Our paths did not cross in a business way but we met occasionally at official social functions.

"Back in Washington during July, I had some conferences with him in connection with preparations for the presentation of the United Nations charter to the Senate for ratification.

"I resigned from the department early in August, 1945, and so far as I recall I did not meet Mr. Hiss personally again until he came to London in January, 1946. . . . During that conference in January and February we had offices nearby each other and met frequently at delegation meetings and staff conferences.

"I returned to the United States in March, 1946 and I do not believe I met Mr. Hiss again until

Gossard Sisters Hostesses at Luncheon Meet

Mrs. Vere C. Foster and Miss Catherine Gossard were hostesses on Thursday at a covered dish luncheon and regular meeting of the Buckeye Garden Club.

The hostesses seated their guests at one large table centered with spring flowers and candles, carrying out a pastel color scheme, using hyacinths and jonquils, and smaller tables with the same floral arrangements in miniature bouquets.

Following the congenial luncheon hour Mrs. Charles Hughes, president, called the meeting to order and the opening hymn was the them song, "In The Garden."

It was planned to have a plant and food sale in May and a donation was made to the Cancer Fund. Roll call was responded to with suggestions for roadside improvement.

The Arbor Day project reported was the planting of a Norway spruce on the town hall lawn in Bloomingburg.

Mrs. Glen Davis, Sr., was program leader and gave a paper on "Arbor Day." Mrs. Neil Davis read a poem, "Spring Song." Mrs. Jean Brown also gave highlights of her recent trip to Washington, D. C. and Mrs. Lucille Creath told of her trip to Florida.

The meeting was brought to a close with the reading of the club poem, "Mother" in unison.

Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Margaret Weideman, Mrs. Willard Bloomer, Miss Florence Purcell, Mrs. Neil Davis and Mrs. Dale Thornton.

The business session was preceded by a dessert course and decorations throughout the home were early spring shrubs and Easter flowers.

Mrs. Perse Harlow, president, conducted the brief business session, during which it was reported that fifteen members attended the district garden club meeting in Lancaster recently, and the name of Mrs. Paul Craig was added to the membership roll.

The members were reminded of the 30th anniversary celebration of the club, to be held at the Washington Country Club May 12, and were told that reservations are steadily coming in.

The highlight of the meeting was the plant sale with Mrs. Gladys Keller as auctioneer, during which some lively bidding took place, and the project added a tidy sum to the treasury.

Mrs. Maryon Mark was introduced later and she read an interesting article entitled, "My Favorite Fruit Tree and How I Grow It," which was most interesting.

Guests included were Mrs. W. H. Theobald, Mrs. N. M. Reiff and Mrs. William Rodgers.

Rival Pilots Shed Tear For Leo The Lip

Giants Lose 2 Stars;
Reds Due Home for Sunday Exhibition

NEW YORK, April 11—Seven National League managers were thinking that, well, maybe they could spare a little sympathy for Leo Durocher, the harassed manager of the champion New York Giants.

He has lost Monte Irvin and Willie Mays, two-thirds of his regular outfield, and what manager can afford that sort of a blow?

Popups are getting popular again with Cleveland. Notoriously poor hitters last season, they're hitting .256 for the exhibition season—the same average they marked up at the close of 1951.

Luke Easter, the team's slugger, hasn't hit safely in the last 16 times at bat. In two days, he dropped from .268 to .238.

Gabe Paul, general manager of the Cincinnati Reds, insists his team isn't that good—in spring training, that is.

The often-heard jibe has been that Cincinnati does fine in pre-season play, but look where it lands when the National League standings are jotted down. Paul says the "peculiar belief" that the Reds are balls of fire during the spring is a myth.

CINCINNATI has won the Grapefruit League title just once, and the Reds wound up in first division that year, Gabe claims.

The Redleg boss explained he loves to see the boys win ball games—exhibition or otherwise—but he would like to see that "springtime jinx" stuff laid to rest.

The exceptional luck the Rhinelanders have been having with the weather finally ran out on them Thursday. Intermittent showers washed out their scheduled exhibition with the Toledo Mudhens in Richmond, Ind.

They were to play the Detroit Tigers in Columbus Friday, in the first of a three-game series. The same two clubs will clash Saturday in Dayton and Sunday at Crosley Field, Cincinnati.

Other exhibition baseball scores Thursday were:
Boston (N) 5, Boston (A) 4
Chicago (A) 10, Atlanta 9
Chattanooga 6, Detroit 3
Baltimore 6, New York (A) 2
Philadelphia (A) 9, Greensboro 6
Philadelphia (N) 8, St. Louis (N) 7
Brooklyn 4, Washington 3

Harness Racing Season Moves To East, Midwest Next Week

COLUMBUS, April 11—A harness racing season that opened auspiciously on the West Coast a month ago spreads to the east and Midwest next week with indications pointing toward banner seasons in both areas.

April 15 openings are listed for both Yonkers Raceway, N. Y., and Maywood Park near Chicago.

The Yonkers spring meeting will continue through May 24 under sponsorship of the Yonkers Trotting Association. The Maywood Trotting Association meeting goes until June 21.

The Yonkers opening signals the beginning of seven full months of harness racing activity in the metropolitan New York area.

From now until Nov. 15, when the Yonkers fall meeting ends, either that track or nearby Roosevelt Raceway in Westbury, L. I., will be open. For two weeks in August both tracks will operate.

The picture is much the same in the Chicago area with three associations conducting meetings at two tracks over a six month period.

TWO DAYS after the Maywood meeting ends, Chicago Downs opens a 59-night stand extending through Aug. 9 in Cicero. The Fox Valley Trotting Club then goes at Maywood from Aug. 11 through Oct. 18. Scene of the Fox Valley operation has been transferred this year from Aurora, Ill.

In the New York area, Roosevelt opens May 26, two days after the Yonkers spring meeting ends. Roosevelt then operates through Sept. 27 with both the Nassau and Old Country Trotting Associations sponsoring meetings. The Yonkers summer meeting is carded for Aug. 18-30 with the fall meeting there opening Sept. 29 and continuing through Nov. 15.

The 1952 harness season opened March 14 at Santa Anita Park under the Western Harness Racing Association banner. A sparkling early mile in 2:00.45 by Movie Actor Charlie Coburn's Rush Hour and increased attendance have highlighted the meeting to date.

The Western Harness meeting goes through May 10 with the California Horse Racing Association taking over for a 29-day stand at Bay Meadows May 13 through June 18.

Extended parimutuel meetings in Ohio this season are:

May 10-May 31, Lebanon Raceway.

June 3-July 23, Painesville Raceway.

June 3-July 19, Hilliards Raceway.

Sept. 11-Oct. 31, Grandview Oval, Slop.

Sept. 13-Oct. 4, Lebanon Raceway.

Lions Club to Honor WHS Cagers Tuesday

The second annual Lions Club banquet, honoring the members of the Washington C. H. High School basketball team, will have Fred Raizk, athletic director at Wilmington College, as the main speaker.

All members of the Varsity and Reserve squads, the team managers and the athletic staff of the high school have been invited to be the club's special guests at the Tuesday evening banquet at the Country Club.

The three senior members of the squad will receive special awards of small gold basketballs. They are Lloyd Arnold, Norman Crosswhite and Bud Dawson.

Following the dinner and the introduction of the members of the two squads, Coach Raizk will talk on the affect of good sportsmanship on living a better life.

Norris Highfield heads the committee making arrangements for the banquet. He is being assisted by Charles Reinke, Carl Wilt and Walter Rettig.

Joe Haynes, pitcher for the Washington Senators, is married to Thelma Griffith, daughter of Clark Griffith, owner of the Nats.

Boxcar Bailey Out of Sprints

OXFORD, April 11 — (P)—Miami University's standout sprinter, Jim (Boxcar) Bailey, won't be competing against Ohio State Saturday, or against any other track team for a while.

Jay Colville, team trainer, said the star athlete, who also is a football star for Miami, pulled a tendon during a time sprint Wednesday. He will be out of action probably for a month, and possibly for the rest of the season, Colville mournfully reported. Bailey, of Hamilton, was 100-yard sprint champion at the Drake Relays last year.

Max Zaslofsky, one of the top basketball players in professional ranks, was only a substitute on the St. Johns college cage team.

WHS Baseball Game At Greenfield Balked

Rain Thursday afternoon washed out the Lion-Tiger baseball game that was to have been played at Greenfield.

While there was some disappointment over having to break the schedule for the second game of the season, there also was some relief because the air was pretty chilly for the sport of the good old summertime.

The Lions lost their opener to London's Red Raiders Thursday afternoon at Wilson Field. That was a cold day and the field was still soft and even muddy in spots.

The game slated for Greenfield Thursday was postponed until Monday, April 28.

The next game for the Lions will be at Hillsboro against the Indians. The next home game for the WHS outfit will be with Circleville's Tigers on next Friday.

NEW McCormick 6-ft. Harvester-Thresher

Saves down and tangled crops . . . separates grain completely . . . speeds your harvest

Here's a big-capacity, straight-through combine that picks up storm-flattened crops . . . lets you save the grain in man-high weed patches without slugging the cylinder. The McCormick No. 64 is built extra strong to withstand long, continuous operation at today's faster tractor speeds.

Low-angle feeder, 64½ inches wide, keeps rank, heavy crops from balling up and clogging the cylinder.

Widest cylinder—64¼ inches—of any combine built. This six-bar, rasp-type cylinder can be operated at speeds ranging from 600 to 1600 rpm. to thresh any crop clean.

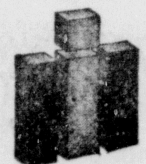

Big oversize separating unit puts grain in the bin that smaller capacity machines leave in the straw.

Combine many crops—small grains, soybeans, sorghums, legumes, and lots of others. The McCormick No. 64 Harvester-Thresher is an all-purpose combine for average-size farms.

See us for all the facts about the new No. 64 the next time you're in town.

Other No. 64 Features

- Full-width, straight-through design
- Auxiliary engine or tractor PTO driven
- Grain tank or bagger
- Sealed, self-lubricating bearings
- One-piece all-steel straw rack

And here on the road—where it counts—Marathon "Cat" proves its extra road power with an octane rating even higher than it shows in the laboratory. ## ANNOUNCEMENTS

MEMORIAM
My mother, Grace
She is an angel now. I know,
God opened for her His portals wide;
She wanted to be with our loved ones
And now she is there by their side.
Our devotion was God given
And it still is here with me now;
Someday I'll be there in Heaven,
To God's will I now humbly bow.
May M. Duffee
She passed beyond the gates March 20, 1952.

In Memory of
Mary Anna McKenzie
There isn't much that we can do,
There isn't much to say,
To comfort all the aching hearts,
Since Mary went away.

She was such a jolly person,
Always full of fun,
And anywhere you met her
She had a smile for everyone.
She didn't have time to say goodbye,
She didn't have time to say
For the Lord He called our loved one
In a wreck on the high-way.

So all that we can do now
Is only hope and pray
That someday we will meet her
In a land that is far away.
Written by her friend
Bertie

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE—Here's how to work it:

AXYDLBAAXR
LONGBELLOW

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Truck Thief Under Arrest

Man Apprehended In Circleville

An hour after Raymond Settles, address unknown, stole a pick-up truck here, owned by Robert Hillier at 1:30 A. M., Friday, he was under arrest in Circleville, and police were notified.

The truck had not been reported stolen when word came that the Circleville police were holding the driver and the truck in that city.

The truck was stolen from the curb on North Main Street near the Cherry Hotel.

Circleville police said they had a charge of operating a motor vehicle without a license against Settles.

Police here were going to Circleville Friday to being Settles back on a motor vehicle theft charge, and also to bring back the stolen truck.

Chicken Feed Ain't Hay; It's Costly Grain

WASHINGTON, April 11.—In the last five years, science has shown the chicken farmer how to make one pound of broiler feed do the work of nearly two.

It has done this by adding vitamins, mineral elements and antibiotics to the poultry ration.

Recent studies by the Agriculture Department show the best chicken flocks now require only 2.7 pounds of feed to produce one pound of chicken. Five years ago it took nearly twice that much.

The department says that in these days of high grain and other feed product prices savings in feed make it possible for poultrymen to supply Americans with a record quantity of chicken meat at reasonable prices.

Feed represents more than 60 per cent of the cost of producing broilers. Each decrease of one pound in the feed required to produce a pound of broiler saves almost five cents a pound in the cost of the broiler.

On a three - pound broiler, the saving would amount to 15 cents. The profit margin in broiler raising is so close that this could often mean the difference between profit and loss.

Officials say if poultrymen used the feeds and feeding practices of 10 years ago current grain prices would require that they get at least 50 per cent more for their chickens than now paid them.

4-H'ers Making Easter Baskets

Patients at Memorial Hospital will have an extra special surprise on their trays this weekend, thanks to the members of the Scissors Sisters 4-H Club.

The group is presently making miniature Easter baskets filled with candy to be placed on the patient's trays.

Between 35 and 40 baskets are being made of green crepe paper filled with paper grass to hold the Easter candies. On the outside will be an Easter sticker and a greeting from the club members.

One special basket is being made for little Jackie Detweiler who is sick at home. Jackie had planned to become a member of the 4-H Club this year, but rheumatic fever has kept her from attending school and joining the club.

The idea for distributing the baskets is part of the club's health and community activities.

Sen. Daniels Is Named to Probe Group

Senator Roscoe R. Walcott (R. Columbus), chairman of the Ohio Program Commission, today named Senator Albert L. Daniels of Greenfield to a committee charged with the duty of investigating the Ohio Industrial Commission. Oliver C. Schroeder, Jr., associate professor of Western Reserve University law school, Cleveland, is chairman of the group.

"This Committee has been carefully selected," Senator Walcott said, "to assure that all phases of the workmen's compensation act and the operation of the Industrial Commission are carefully studied with no intent either to smear or whitewash. These people are competent to dig out the facts and advise the legislature and the people of Ohio on what steps should be taken to make the act operate in the best interests of all the people of the State."

"There has been complaint about the practices of the Industrial Commission for several years. The General Assembly passed a bill setting up an independent commission to make an investigation of them. When this bill was vetoed by the governor, the Legislature felt so keenly on the subject that the Ohio Program Commission was ordered, by Senate Joint Resolution No. 21, to make the investigation. This Committee, therefore, is in the position of doing a real service to the Industrial Commission itself, as well as to the Legislature," Senator Walcott said.

Senators Growl

victory in the fall elections and moving to blanket thousands of Democratic officials under Civil Service protection.

A veteran Democrat, Sen. George of Georgia promptly announced his opposition and added:

"If the Senate has any respect for its responsibilities in selecting honest and efficient officials, the move will be defeated."

Strong support for the reorganization came from three younger Democratic senators, Monroney of Oklahoma, Moody of Michigan, and Humphrey of Minnesota.

They previously had introduced an even broader bill that would put federal district attorneys as well as postmasters, marshals and customs officials under Civil Service.

Sen. Edwin C. Johnson (D-Colo.), who often knows what the Senate will do, said:

"I'm fed up with political patronage. So I guess I will vote with the President."

The President, in his message to Congress covering the plans, said senators cannot "rightfully be opposed on the grounds that they help or harm any political groups."

Egg Hunt Sponsored By Episcopal Guild

Members of St. Christina's Guild of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church today were busy coloring eggs for the Easter egg hunt to be held for the youngsters at the Country Club Saturday afternoon.

The hunt is scheduled to start at 2:30 P. M. and the afternoon's program of fun for the children probably will not come to an end until after 4:30 o'clock.

There had been some confusion over the time, but Friday morning a spokesman for the Guild said definitely it would be 2:30 P. M.

If the weather is suitable, the brightly colored eggs will be hidden on the grounds in the grove of big oak trees near the clubhouse. If it is inclement, the whole affair is to be held indoors.

Just how many eggs the youngsters will have to hunt is not certain. All of the members of the Guild are to color a dozen and since there are about 30 members of the Guild, well, it looks like there would be lots of eggs, anyway.

The children will get to take home with them all the eggs they find.

Light refreshments are to be served when the hunt is over. This will be the second event of the kind sponsored by St. Andrew's Church. The one last year was such a success that plans for this year's were enlarged.

No Bumper Wheat

year what may turn out to be their last bumper wheat crop for some time to come.

The report indicated the third largest harvest of record and 26 per cent larger than last year.

This big crop is being grown under a department recommendation that production be boosted this year for a twofold purpose: Restoring dwindling reserves and providing ample supplies for export under a "cut-rate" price program.

Under an international wheat agreement, this country is exporting 250 million bushels a year at prices averaging about 75 cents a bushel under the domestic price. This agreement will expire at the end of the marketing season for this year's crop, unless extended.

The administration has said it will seek extension of the pact, but strong opposition has developed in Congress because of the cost to the government, which has been running about $185 million a year. The government pays the difference between the cut-rate export price and the higher domestic price.

Without the agreement, American wheat would be priced higher in world markets and consequently probably would find few buyers.
